The appearance of a case of diphtheria in the family of Peter Sachs on East Middle street has resulted in the closing of all the schools in the High Street and High School buildings while fumigation is in progress. The patient is Miss Ruth Sachs, a pupil in Mrs. Witherow's room. A sister, Miss Grace Sachs, is a teacher in one PATHE of the other rooms in the High Street building while a brother is attending the High School.

The case was discovered on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Ruth Sachs had not been feeling well but was not so sick as to require her staying in the sician found her suffering from a mild form of diphtheria and notified the School Board and the Board of Health.

The closing of the schools and the quarantining of the Sachs home were at once ordered and all the rooms thoroughly fumigated. Both the High School and High Street buildings will undergo the process which proved so effective last year when diphtheria made its appearance and work will be resumed on Monday as usual. Miss Grace Sachs, who teaches the Second Grade, has gone home to assist in taking care of her sick sister and her work will be taken up ern township bill prevented the House ter, Md.

PLAN BATTLE ANNIVERSARY

Anniversary Commission and Representatives from Many States Gather in Philadelphia to Plan for Gettysburg's Big Celebration.

Governor Tener, the Fiftieth Anniversary Commission and representatives from a number of states are neeting in Philadelphia today to outline the final plans for the celebration next July.

It was announced Wednesday night that the commission will suggest that the public exercises during the reunion shall be of the following order:

The first day to be known as Veterans' Day. In it all surviving soldiers of the Civil War, North and South, shall be requested to take part is invited guests, under the direction of the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, that of he United Confederate Veterans, and under such order as these officers in onnection with the commission may irect, the United States flag only to

The second day to be known as Miliary Day, and to be under the comnand of the chief of staff of the Unitd States Army. Special detatchments of each branch of the army to be deailed by the Secretary of War; and epresentatives of the National Guards of the States to be chosen and invited for merit. Each command to have present a military band, and the evolutions of the day to be determined by the commission in consultation with the army officers in command.

The third day to be known as Civic Day, and to be under the personal supervision of the Governor of Pennsylvania. The participants to be the lovernors of the several States, their staffs and the general public. A great chorus of voices from the leadng choral societies of the country, upported by the military bands, to furnish the music. Exercises to be held morning, afternoon and evening n the rostrum. Appropriate orations to be delivered at the earlier services and a sermon to be given in the evening, recognizing the Divine Provi-The Phi Gamma Delta fraternity of Iva and Ruby, were visitors at the dence in the rise and progress of the Republic.

> The fourth day to be known as National Day, at which the Chief Jusice of the Supreme Court shall preside, and the President, Vice Presiden't, the Cabinet, the Speaker of the Congressional Committee shall be the guests of honor. At 10 o'clock a. m., a great mass-meeting shall be held at the rostrum, at which prayer shall be offered, singing by the chorus and people shall be rendered, and an oraion shall be delivered by the Presilent of the United States. At high noon the corner-stone of the Peace Memorial shall be laid by the President, which act shall conclude the official exercises.

It was also announced that every state will send its surviving members of the old Union and Confederate armies to the encampment. Large ums of money have been appropriatd by the various States for the mainenance of the veteran army during the encampment. New York State has appropriated $275,000; Pennsylania $250,000; Vermont $10,000; New ersey $20,000; Massachusetts $2000; and Maryland, $2000.

An interesting feature of the recepion and entertainment of the repreentatives is the fact that many of hem are from the South and Southwest, and, while in Philadelphia will be 'the guests of the Union League, which was primarily organized to uphold the cause of the North during the Civil War. Among the Southernrs who arrived and are guests at the league are General C. Irvine Walker, of South Carolina, past commandern-chief and present chairman of the Union Confederate Veterans' Committee on Gettysburg Reunion; General Andrew J. West, of Georgia, and General Felix H. Robertson, of Texas.

Secretary of War Stimson has approved plans formulated by Major James E. Normoyle and Captain H. F. Dalton, for the mammoth camp, to shelter surviving Union and Confederate veterans, who will meet at Gettysburg next July to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the battle.

WOULD PUT BAN ON TREATING

Bill In Legislature Makes "Have One on Me" a Crime.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 23.-Will i come to pass in Pennsylvania that men may not say to each other, in the clas sic language of the governors of the Carolinas, "Have one on me?"

This question sprang to the lips of the state house of representatives when Horace B. Dunn, of Huntingdon county, offered a bill which would make it a crime for any person holding a liquor license to treat another to a cocktail or even a plain "short beer."

According to the terms of this bil it would cost a man a fine of from $500 to $5000 should he in a moment of liquid generosity "buy" for a companion before the bar or around the cafe table.

But the fine is not the only thing. A nice little sojourn of from ninety days to twelve months in jail would go right along with the other "fine."

This bill would be a supplement to an act approved May 13, 1887, entitled an "act to restrain and regulate the sale of vinous liquors, etc." The supplement would make it unlawful for any person licensed to sell liquors to furnish or give or permit to be given any liquors to any person "who shall not have paid for the same, or permit any person who shall not have paid for the same to drink any such liquors upon his premises.'

TAFT HAS TRAVELED ABOUT 113,659 MILES

During His Presidency He Has Visited Forty-six States.

Washington, Jan. 23.-When President Taft stepped down from his private car on his return from New Haven the total mileage of his travels during his four years in the White House reached 113,659-enough to have taken him four and one-half times around the world, or an average of about seventy-five miles for every day he has been president.

Including the three short journeys to be taken before March 4, Mr. Taft will have traveled during his term about 125,000 miles, or five times the distance around the earth at the equator. No other president has equaled this record.

Mr. Taft has made about 25,000 miles of the total on his two "swings around the circle." Two trips to the Panama canal zone have swelled the tiaries of the Balkan kingdoms are im president's mileage considerably, but mensely pleased over the decision of it was on trips to New York, to Boston | the grand council at Constantinople to and Beverly and to Cincinnati that the miles that made the big total were rolled up at their fastest clip.

Congress gave the president $25,000 a year for traveling expenses, and Mr. Taft has used that appropriation every year he has been in office.

Constantinople, Jan. 23.—The grand council of the Ottoman empire voted in favor of accepting the proposals put forward by the European powers for the purpose of bringing about the conclusion of peace.

The question submitted by the Turkish government to the grand council was: "Should the recommendations contained in the note of the European powers be accepted or rejected?"

The government frankly confessed itself in favor of agreeing to the suggestion made by the powers, and after a slight discussion the assembly decided almost unanimously in agreement with the view of the govern-

Therefore the Marquas Johann de Pallavincini, Austro-Hungarian ambassador and dean of the diplomatic corps at Constantinople, will be handed a note in which the Ottoman government agrees to the proposals embodied in the joint note with regard to the cession of the fortress of Adrianople and the future disposition of the Aegean Islands, and places itself in the hands of the powers.

A meeting of the council of ministers will be held before the final step

The note handed to the Porte on Jan. 17 by the European ambassadors at Constantinople called the Ottoman government's attention "to the grave responsibility it would assume if by resistance to their councils it should prevent the re-establishment of peace. It would only have itself to blame it the prolongation of the war had as a consequence to put in question the fate of the capital and perhaps to extent hostilities to the Asiatic provinces of the Turkish empire.'

Allies Surprised.

London, Jan. 23. - The plenipoten accept the advice of the powers.
